

2nd International Meeting on Childhood Tuberculosis Location: Vilnius, Lithuania 21st - 23rd March 2018

Confirmed speakers include renowned experts:

Prof Beate Kampmann and Dr James Seddon - Imperial College London
Dr Steve Graham - Melbourne and IUATLD
Prof. Andrei Mariandyshev - Northern State Medical University, Russian Federation
Dr Tony Garcia-Prats - Stellenbosch University Cape Town
Dr Mark Tebruegge - Evelina Children's Hospital, St Thomas Hospital, London, UK
Dr Helen Fletcher - LSTHM UK
Dr Folke Brinkmann - Ruhr University, Bochum and Chair of pTBnet
Dr Steve Welch - Birmingham Heartlands Hospital UK
Dr Anna Turkova - UCL & Great Ormond Street Hospital London, UK
Dr Elisa Lopez-Varela - ISGlobal, Barcelona Institute for Global Health & Hospital Clinic - Universitat De Barcelona

Registration fees:

Early Bird up to 31.12.17 / Late Fee 01.01.18 onwards

Eastern European delegates: Early Bird Euro 50 / Late Fee: Euro 55

Developing countries: Early Bird Euro 50 / Late Fee: Euro 55

Trainee: Early Bird Euro 100 / Late fee Euro 110

ESPID member: Early Bird Euro 200 / Late fee Euro 220

Non-ESPID member: Early Bird Euro 300 / Late fee Euro 330

For further information go to:

<http://penta-id.org/tb-congress-vilnius/> or contact Charlotte Male: c.male@ucl.ac.uk

Themes will include:

- Towards zero death - tackling childhood TB in Europe and abroad
- Clinical course of childhood TB
- New insights into an old disease - from basic science to new diagnostics
- MDR TB - a new threat

