

2nd International Meeting on Childhood Tuberculosis Location: Vilnius, Lithuania 21st - 23rd March 2018

Confirmed speakers include renowned experts:

Dr James Seddon - Imperial College London, UK
Prof. Andrei Mariandyshev - Northern State Medical University, Russian Federation
Dr Tony Garcia-Prats - Stellenbosch University Cape Town, South Africa
Dr Marc Tebruegge - Evelina Children's Hospital, St Thomas Hospital, London, UK
Dr Helen Fletcher - London School Health and Tropical Medicine, UK
Dr Folke Brinkmann - Ruhr University, Bochum, Germany and Chair of pTBnet
Prof Helen McIlleron - University of Cape Town, South Africa
Dr Steve Welch - Birmingham Heartlands Hospital, UK
Dr Elisa Lopez-Varela - ISGlobal, Barcelona Institute for Global Health, Spain
Dr Anna Turkova - UCL & Great Ormond Street Hospital London, UK
Dr Christian Herzmann - Research Center Borstel, Germany

Registration fees:

Early Bird up to 14.01.2018 / Late Fee 15.01.2018 onwards
Reduced Fee (details on website): Early Bird Euro 50 / Late Fee: Euro 60
Trainees and nurses: Early Bird Euro 100 / Late fee Euro 120
ESPID member: Early Bird Euro 200 / Late fee Euro 240
Non-ESPID member: Early Bird Euro 300 / Late fee Euro 360

Themes will include:

- Towards zero death - tackling childhood TB in Europe and abroad
- Clinical course of childhood TB
- New insights into an old disease - from basic science to new diagnostics
- MDR TB - a new threat

For further information go to:

<http://www.ptbnetvilnius2018.com/> or contact Charlotte Male: c.male@ucl.ac.uk

