

Penta is an international independent scientific network devoted to advancing research on optimising the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of infectious diseases in children and in pregnancy, globally.

Our members are healthcare professionals, researchers, and scientists from all over the world, who share a common vision to improving maternal and child health.

Learn more about the network

For more information email info@penta-id.org or visit www.penta-id.org
Subscribe to our newsletter and follow us on LinkedIn, Instagram and Facebook

Interested in becoming a member?

Join the Penta ID Network

Together we can paint a brighter future for maternal and child health

Scan to apply

