

Rome 2017 Tr@inforPedHIV

An Interactive Training Course

Supported by PENTA / ESPID

Course registration opens 13th March; Online course 1 opens 9th May; Online course 2 opens September

Part 1 - 6 fortnightly online modules lasting 12 weeks Part 2 - online interactive cases for discussion

Residential Course: Rome 18th - 20th October 2017

Online modules include the following topics:

- Epidemiology, virology and immunology
- Mother to child transmission and prevention programmes
- The Immunology of paediatric HIV & malignancy in paediatric HIV
- Psychosocial aspects including adolescent HIV and transition to adult services
- Opportunistic infections, management & prevention (Hepatitis & TB co-infection)
- Over / Under nutrition and HIV
- Antiretroviral therapy and drug resistance

Registration fees:

Online & Residential Course / Online Course only Early Bird* (before 5th May)

Resource Limited Settings*: €150 / €100

ESPID/CHIVA members: €700 / € 500

Other: €950 / € 530

*Please refer to 1st Announcement on www.penta-id.org for more information on fees

Registration includes: individual password for online parts 1 and 2, participation in the three-day residential course (with meals), & a final attendance certificate. Travel & accommodation not included.

For further information:

PENTA www.penta-id.org or ESPID www.espid.org or contact: trainforped@pentafoundation.org or Charlotte Male: c.male@ucl.ac.uk

Delegates at the 2015 & 2016 Tr@inforPedHIV courses found it a very useful update & a practical approach to managing HIV in children. The course is suitable for paediatricians, specialist nurses & pharmacists & others working with children with HIV.

*The course is part of the Diploma in Paediatric Infectious Diseases
from Oxford University,
to find out more visit:
<http://www.conted.ox.ac.uk/pid>*